State Department Compiling Report Of Sinking Of

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Immediate strengthening of American naval forces in the South Atlantic and the issuance of orders to the navy to resort to more drastic measures to protect American shipping on the high seas was seen in informed quarters today as this government's first likely answer to the sinking by the "Laughing Cow" submarine, believed to be German, of the American Merchantman Robin Moor.

This move, it was said, is likely to be followed up by a blunt warning to Germany that the United States will not tolerate the sinking of American ships on the high seas.

Compiling Report
Just how strong the warning will be depends upon President Roosevelt, officials here said. The state department is compiling a report on the incident for the president. The report, it was learned, will state that the sinking of the ship unquestionably appears to be a flagrant violation of international law.

Apart from the question of whether or not the submarine had a right to sink a neutral ship on the high seas, the manner in which the Robin Moor was sunk is considered by government legal experts to be an indefensible violation of the rules of international law which govern naval warfare.

Violation Of Treaty
It is regarded as a specific violation of Article 22 of the London Naval Treaty of 1930, to which Germany is a party and which states: "Except in the case of persistent refusal to stop on being duly summoned."

PA NEW OBSERVES
In case you haven't noticed, today is again Friday the thirteenth!

New Castle's downtown section got one of the hardest rains of the summer about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Many persons were marooned on street corners until the rain subsided as streets were covered with water, and crossing intersections was difficult.

Wheat fields throughout the county appear to be starting to ripen. Early harvest will probably develop.

Pa New noted a field of hay that had been cut, Thursday afternoon, on a farm along the Ellwood City road. It marks the beginning of a busy time for the county farmers.

One thing that substitution of buses for street cars will do, it will prevent traffic tieups every time a careless auto driver parks a car on North Mill street too far from the intersection.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Conservative leaders in the C. I. O. determined to eliminate the Communist and radical stigma, today marked down 113 officials and leaders of CIO unions, including Harry Bridges and Joseph Curran, for a purge.

Bridges, now fighting deportation proceedings, is president of the CIO's Longshoremen's and Warehouse Workers Union and Curran is head of the Maritime Union. The "right-wing" faction in the CIO accuses the men marked for the purge of either being Communists or sympathetic to radical elements, some of whom have been fomenting national defense strikes.

Others Included.
Others, on the "purge list" besides Bridges and Curran include O. M. O'Brien, president of the International Woodworkers Union, who now is leading a west coast lumber strike in defiance of defense officials and CIO President Murray, and Joseph Selby, president of the American Communications Association, both CIO affiliates.

London Paper Says British

CAIRO, June 13.—British authorities today announced that Damascus is "practically surrounded," but parleys with the French to avoid bloodshed are delaying Allied entry into the Syrian capital.

Official military advices also said that British imperial and Free French forces have surrounded the ancient Port of Sidon on the Lebanese coast.

Strong resistance by troops loyal to the Vichy government was admitted, however, in a British communiqué which said:

"Although temporarily delayed in certain sectors by resistance of Vichy troops, Allied forces in Syria had by yesterday evening made further progress in their penetration into all sectors."

To Make Proposal
Editor's Note: The London Daily Sketch said the Cairo radio reported British headquarters will make a formal proposal to Gen. Henri Dentz, French high commissioner for Syria, to permit the Allied forces to enter Damascus without opposition and thus prevent damage to the city.

The London Daily Express reported from Cairo that both British and Free French troops were in the suburbs of Damascus and that British carriers led the final sweep of British and Australian troops to the city from Kiswe, while the De Gaulle units closed in from the east.

Another Cairo dispatch to the London Daily Mail said Vichy authorities have fled from both Beirut and Damascus to Aleppo in northern Syria. Beirut was the seat of the French mandate administration and headquarters of Gen. Dentz.

A Reuters (British) dispatch from Jerusalem confirmed previous advices from Ankara that a British column advancing up the Euphrates river valley from the Iraq frontier had received Deir-az-Zor in the eastern Syrian desert.

Driving Up Coast
Military dispatches to Cairo said an Australian mechanized column driving up the Lebanese coast and a British force inland completed the encirclement of Sidon.

French 75s and machine guns hidden in orange, apricot, banana and lemon groves surrounding Sidon sent a constant stream of fire against the British and Australian troops as they fought their way into the suburbs and struggled to gain mastery of the historic seaport.

Sidon lies directly in the path of Beirut 22 miles further north. The town was placed under direct siege after a British column forced a (Continued On Page Two)

Gov. James Appeals To Democrats

Accuses Party Of Fund Delay

Terms Action Of Democratic House At Capital As "Political Sabotage"

HOUSE REFUSES TO HOLD SESSION TODAY

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, June 13.—Deadlocked with the house over enactment of a state budget, Gov. Arthur H. James today went over the heads of the Democratic leaders of the legislature and publicly appealed for their repudiation.

Taking the unprecedented step of addressing an open letter to all Democrats of Pennsylvania, the Republican chief executive added new fuel to the fire already raging between his administration and the lower chamber by terming the house leaders "self-delegated bosses."

The governor's new attack upon the Democratic leadership, following in the wake of his "no compromise" speech Wednesday before a joint session of the house and senate, was directed against the refusal of the house to hold a Friday session. Instead, it adjourned last night until Monday, over the opposition of Republican members.

Political Sabotage
The governor termed this "a bit of political sabotage" and accused the Democratic leadership of further delaying enactment of the $188,000,000 general appropriations bill, which contains operating funds for the state government.

Republican legislative leaders had attempted to keep the house in session for a post-midnight session early today, the idea being to have House Speaker Elmer Kilroy sign the bill after the senate passed it finally. This action the senate took early today, but due to the house's refusal to remain in session, final action on the bill will have to be postponed until Monday night, when both houses reconvene.

In voting down the Republican proposal for a house session today, House Majority Leader Leo A. Achteman said there was nothing to be gained by keeping the members here so late. House Administration Leader Robert E. Woodside, Jr., having stated the governor would require until tomorrow to sign the bill. By that time state employees, whose salaries are being delayed, would have gone home for the week end.

Democrats Master Mind

But Governor James said the employees' pay "will be delayed several days" by what he termed "this latest piece of master mind in the name of the Democratic party." They are now expected to receive their pay checks Tuesday, or four days late.

"I urgently call upon all Democrats who seriously value the future welfare of their party, their state, and their nation, to demand that these outrageous political manipulations, conducted by self-delegated bosses who emphatically do not have the support of the rank and file of the party in this mischief, be halted forthwith and that the welfare of the men and women of the commonwealth once more be valued higher than the individual political creeds and ambitions of these reckless individuals," stated the governor.

moned, or of active resistance to visit or search a warship whether surface vessel or submarine, may not sink or render incapable of navigation a merchant vessel without having first placed passengers crew and ship's papers in a place of safety.

"For this purpose, the ship's boats are not regarded as a place of safety unless the safety of the passengers and crew is assured, in the existing sea and weather conditions, by the proximity of land, or the presence of another vessel which is in a position to take them on board."

Promise Not Fulfilled

By setting the 46 passengers and crew of the Robin Moor adrift in the middle of the South Atlantic in lifeboats, the German submarine commander is considered to have flagrantly violated the law. His promise to wireless the position of the lifeboats, which does not appear to have been fulfilled, is not considered by the experts to have relieved him in the least of responsibility for violating the law.

While official quarters took a grave view of the incident, they still discounted the possibility of it actually leading to a state of war between the United States and Germany. These quarters also are inclined to doubt that the incident will result in any immediate severance of diplomatic relations with the Nazis, although it was pointed out the president's thoughts are not known on this question.

If diplomatic relations are not severed, they are likely to be strained to the verge of a complete break.

Ellwood Effort Proceeds
Ellwood's teams have a $5,000 mark to aim at, and from early reports the pledging in that borough is most generous.

In the absence of the drive chairman, Patrick J. Flaherty, last night's meeting was in charge of Emanuel Shenkan, one of the USO vice presidents. Around him were gathered the drive lieutenants who have been active in putting the campaign across.

The reports, given quickly, were followed by a discussion as to what campaign steps should now come, and the workers unanimously voted to carry on until victory.

"We're on the way," Vice President Shenkan told the group. "We'll make a showing everyone can be proud to speak about."

His optimism was echoed by Robert L. Meermans, Y. M. C. A. general secretary; Jack Gerson, merchant; Louis Sander, Johnson Bronze Co. official; and others.

The campaign in many parts of the county is still continuing, leaders stressed.

will be taken. No seats will be reserved save those upon the platform.

General Committee

Upon the platform will be the American Legion band which will play orchestral accompaniments and several patriotic numbers, the speakers, officers of the Lawrence Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, members of the General Committee and the Citizens Committee, Judges W. Walter Braham and Charles Matthews, Jr., and Mayor Charles B. Mayne will represent the official life of the county and city.

Parade To Be Large

There seems no doubt that barring inclement weather, the parade should be a large one. Lt. Col. W. Fulton Jackson is the Parade Chairman with Lt. Lester W. McClelland the grand marshal, Mayor Charles B. Mayne is the honorary grand marshal and will sit upon the reviewing stand with city council, several of the officers of the D. A. R., William T. Kerr, Fred I. Rantz, William S. Livengood and Captain Roger W. Rowland.

Six mounted officers of the Pennsylvania Motor Police will head the parade, followed by Grand Marshal McClelland, Chief of Staff A. B. Foster and the staff. The flag section will come next and then the American Legion band heading the Service Division. In this division will be all patriotic organizations such as the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, United Spanish War Veterans, the auxiliaries of these organizations, the Legion of Honor, the Builders and several others.

The second division will be headed by the Ellwood City American Legion Junior Bugle and Drum Corps. Ellwood City has shown a fine co-operative spirit in the local celebration and as an earnest of that co-operation is sending the bugle and drum corps over.

The second and third divisions will be composed of civic and fraternal organizations. Because of the size the division has been divided into two sections. The Red Coat band will head the third division.

The fourth division will be the Youth Division, composed of such organizations as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girl Reserves, Croton Boys and Girls, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. boys and girls. Heading this division will be the Croton band.

The fifth division will be composed of floats.

The reviewing stand will be located on Jefferson street fronting the Y. W. C. A. building. Here the D. A. R. officials, and city officials will review the marchers.

As they always do, the police of the city are co-operating fully in the parade. No parking will be permitted on Washington street between 2:30 and four o'clock. Officers will be stationed at the parade formation point near the Legion Home to keep traffic moving, and other officers will be assigned to the reviewing stand.

It is possible that traffic over the down town streets may be slowed during the parade but motorists are asked to remember that the delay is caused by a public display of feeling for the Stars and Stripes.

At noon the Lawrence Chapter of the D. A. R. is tendering Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kerr and Secretary Livengood a luncheon in The Castleton hotel.

From the plans set out above and from the wide spread interest manifest in the Flag Day celebration it should be one to be remembered in New Castle.

BRITISH DROP BOMBS ON RUHR

a small number of German planes flew inland over eastern England and dropped bombs on various points without causing damage or casualties. One German plane was declared to have been shot down.

Editor's note: An official Berlin announcement said several civilians were killed and injured when R. A. F. planes penetrated northern and western Germany, dropping incendiary and high explosive bombs on several districts, especially residential quarters where buildings were damaged.

The German communists stated six British planes were shot down by German night fighters and anti-aircraft fire. Two were declared to have been destroyed while attempting to penetrate Norway.

British anti-aircraft guns early this morning sent up a heavy barrage that drove several German raiders away from northeastern English coastal towns.

POTTER-RICHARDS NUPTIALS AT CHURCH

In the beautifully decorated auditorium of the Epworth Methodist church, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Shirley Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Potter of Harrison street, became the bride of Crawford Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richards of East Washington street.

Before the attractively embanked altar of ferns, palms and summer flowers, the marriage vows were exchanged in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives, with Rev. William A. Thornton officiating with the impressive single ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Anna Pyle, church organist, played a recital of nuptial music, and Betty Hogue sang the bridal favorites "Because" and "I Love You Truly".

The bride was charming in a long flowing gown of white marquisette, with fingertip veil, which was caught in a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

As maid of honor, Miss Lenora Potter, sister of the bride, was gown in light pink marquisette with a matching poke bonnet, and her flowers were roses and delphinium.

Mrs. Donald Potter, as bridesmaid, wore blue marquisette with a matching bonnet, and her flowers were roses and delphinium. Harry Richards served his brother as best man and ushers included Donald Potter and Jack Richards, brothers of the bride and groom.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception took place in the Potter home with the traditional three-tiered wedding cake centering the bride's table, and with summer flowers used in the decorations throughout the home.

Later in the evening the couple left for Washington, D. C., and upon their return will be "at home" to their friends in their newly furnished apartment at 1820 East Washington street after June 20.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Richards are graduates of the January class of 1940 from the New Castle Senior High school and the former is affiliated with the Smith Dry Cleaning company.

HAD A TOUGH DAY?

HAVE you had a tough day? Have there been many little annoyances that got on your nerves? Do you get down-hearted and blue? Try the count-your-blessings remedy urged a nearby city daily in the following:

When you got up this morning and prepared to go to your job, you didn't hunt up your gas mask before you dared go out of doors. You haven't any gas mask and do not need one.

When you drove away in your car you didn't remember that in any other country only those who have better than average incomes can afford to own automobiles.

When you pulled up to the gas station you said to the attendant, "Fill 'er up!" You didn't consider that in other countries you probably would be strictly limited in the amount of gasoline you could buy—if you could buy any.

When you opened your mail, you didn't find it had already been read by an official and marked, "passed by the censor."

When your newspaper was brought in, you read it with confidence. You had no thought that its contents had been dictated by a government authority.

If an acquaintance dropped in for a chat, you didn't have in mind that there were certain topics you aren't discuss for fear some snoop-ing authority might overhear and make you trouble.

If you thought of government at all, you felt a sense of responsibility to judge whether your government is right and how you should vote to set it right if you don't approve of its conduct.

When you got home, perhaps your wife told you of her shopping trip and of the abundant supplies of good things she found in the markets. Did you realize that in no other country in the world could so many and so large a supply of things needful be offered, with customers enjoying perfect freedom to choose and to buy according to their ability to pay?

When darkness fell, were you thankful to see the street lights coming on, and thankful that you had no orders to put up shutters at your windows and turn your lights low? You have heard of blackouts but in your country you know nothing of the inconvenience and perils of them.

When dinner was ready and your family gathered around the table, were you thankful that your children had not been "evacuated" and must stay in some strange home away up in the country?

And when in the evening's quiet you heard the roar of an airplane overhead, did you start in terror? No, you remembered with pride the wonderful record of American airways day and night carrying passengers in safety across this nation that is continent-wide.

When at last you turned in for the night did you remember to say a little prayer: "Thank God I Am An American?"

TRANSPORTING A MILLION

With the summer maneuver season not yet really opened, the railroads have already in the first four months of the year transported more than a million members of the armed forces. More than half these were on 1,890 special trains, the rest were carried incidental to regular service.

The transport burden will probably increase this summer as hundreds of thousands of troops are concentrated at various points for maneuvers. Nevertheless, performance to date gives some hope that the rail confusions of 1917-1918 will not occur again, either as to transportation of the armed forces themselves or the materials to supply them and keep the national economy going at the same time.

WAR HAS DEVELOPED ALLIES

In the pursuit that ended with the destruction of the German battleship Bismarck, a Polish destroyer was the first actually to sight the sea giant. It "moved in immediately to engage the great craft," says a London dispatch, and came under the heavy fire of the Bismarck's main and secondary batteries.

In the invasion of Syria it was the Free French forces that were in the van. They appealed to Vichy Frenchmen not to fight, and thousands are reported to have joined them. Their success provides an important bastion on the north against Nazi capture of the Suez Canal.

In a recent action in the Caribbean it was a Dutch warship that halted a French vessel on the way to Martinique with German nationals aboard. In the flight from Crete many Greeks escaped to continue their fight against the Nazis. The Norwegian merchant marine is playing an indispensable part in the Battle of the Atlantic.

So it goes in every theater of war. The forces opposing Hitler may be rightly called the Allies. After the fall of France the term Allies fell somewhat into disuse. Today it is becoming more and more appropriate as refugees from the conquered nations form themselves into effective fighting units and in ever growing numbers oppose the Nazi march to world power.

PASSING OF UNCLE DAN BEARD

All Boy Scouts not only in this country but the world over will mourn the passing of old Uncle Dan Beard. His death will also bring sorrow to a multitude of those who as youngsters, in what now seems so long ago, joined the organization which he helped to found and which has done so much to build up the physique and character of American boyhood.

For it was granted to Uncle Dan to live far beyond the allotted span to witness the beneficent fruits of his noble enterprise. He saw his boys grow up to become leaders of their communities and exemplars of sound American citizenship. He was nearly 61 when he conceived the idea of a Nation-wide organization of boys for education in woodcraft, natural history and similar subjects in the great outdoors. Camping in the woods and rambles through the countryside were related activities and the boys learned countless valuable lessons not to be found in books.

During the last 30 years more than ten million American boys have profited by this combination of wholesome recreation, wisely guided instruction and discipline. Yet the system contains no trace of militarism, in striking contrast to the youth movements in totalitarian lands. The parents as well as the youth of America owe a deep debt of gratitude to the memory of Daniel Beard, for few citizens have made a more enduring contribution to their country's welfare.

Hitler, it is now revealed, was born under the sign of Taurus, but what most people are eager to learn is how he will be buried.

Poets, who once made much ado about the sound of the reaper at wheat harvest time, haven't been able to do much with the combine. But if it doesn't inspire poetry, the combine certainly sends the wheat flowing to market.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FAIRY TALES CAN BENEFIT CHILD

Frequently a parent will write to ask me to settle a dispute over some mode of dealing with a child. Sometimes the letter says, "We have agreed to abide by your decision." Occasionally I am asked to be the umpire between a child or youth on one side and the parents on the other.

Such requests almost frighten me at times, for, as my information about the facts involved must be limited, undoubtedly I make some bad decisions, just as I must err at times in offering advice by letter on the hundreds of problems submitted to me. I promise to do the best I can and hope my "batting average" will be good.

Problem Submitted

"Dear Dr. Myers: My husband and I have agreed to let your advice govern our decision in regard to the following situation concerning our three-year-old boy. I say that a child's life is filled with make-believe. My own was particularly entrancing because of Santa, the Easter Bunny, the Sandman, fairies, etc. My husband particularly objects to the Sandman because Johnnie awaits him nightly after he is tucked in and actually believes that is such a person. He has asked me to draw the line at Santa and the Easter Bunny and to make him forget the Sandman. His reason for this is that he believes it might cause him to be frightened later on. A self-addressed envelope is enclosed."

Doctor's Decision

I decided with the mother. Mrs. Myers and I encouraged make-believe in our children during their early years, and the Sandman was among the choicest of their fairies. These children, now 26, 24, 18, recall no fears nor any other unhappiness in relation to their childhood world of fancy. I particularly recall the expression of interest and joy over reference to the Sandman. Going to bed for our children was always a happy experience. Bedtime scenes were unknown to them. If, however, going to bed were often an unhappy experience, the word "Sandman" might arouse unhappy association in the youngster's mind. It also could arouse fear and anxieties.

Any creations of the little child's imagination can become a source of unhappiness to him. It need not be. It should not be. It can and ought to prove an endless source of pleasure it can be when we parents exercise good sense and manners, when we are hosts or guests, with the little child, of his fairies!

A word more. The moment your child asks you of the Sandman, Santa Claus, or any other creature of imagination, "Is he a real person?" you should calmly, frankly answer, "No, he is not. We have just been playing that he is." As a rule, the child will not be shocked but will choose to go on pretending.

Solving Parents Problems
Q. My child is twenty-six months old. He will play with his food or throw it on the floor. How should I punish him?

A. Not exactly a matter for punishment. Have just one food on his plate at a time, and a small portion of it. The moment he plays with it or drops it to the floor, remove the food, say nothing, but let the meal end there and see he cannot get any more till the next regular meal time. This will help make the food more attractive. To slap his hands might make him quit dropping the food but it also might cause him to dislike the food. Physical punishment in connection with food-taking had better be ruled out.

The World and the Mud Puddles

BOTH WILL SUFFER.

The New Dealers must be now much disturbed when they find a very serious conflict arising from the execution of their plans for the reformation of the farmer and the working man. The New Dealers are very anxious to assist Labor in obtaining higher wages. They also seem to be very anxious to assist the farmer.

California is said to be the Nation's "bread basket," for in its three great valleys—the Imperial, the San Joaquin, and the Sacramento—they are raising tremendous quantities of fruits and vegetables. The quantity is so great, that it has been for years impossible to find a market for the fresh fruits and vegetables raised in those valleys and as a consequence great canneries have been built for the preserving of these fruits and vegetables. Your canned peas, string beans, and asparagus come mostly from those canneries. Today, on account of Strikes by cannery workers and tons of fruits and vegetables are rotting in heaps in California.

Labor must be served. The farmer must be served and these Strikes are resulting in neither one being served. The vegetable farmer is losing his shirt and the cannery worker, whether he had a strike or not, is receiving nothing.

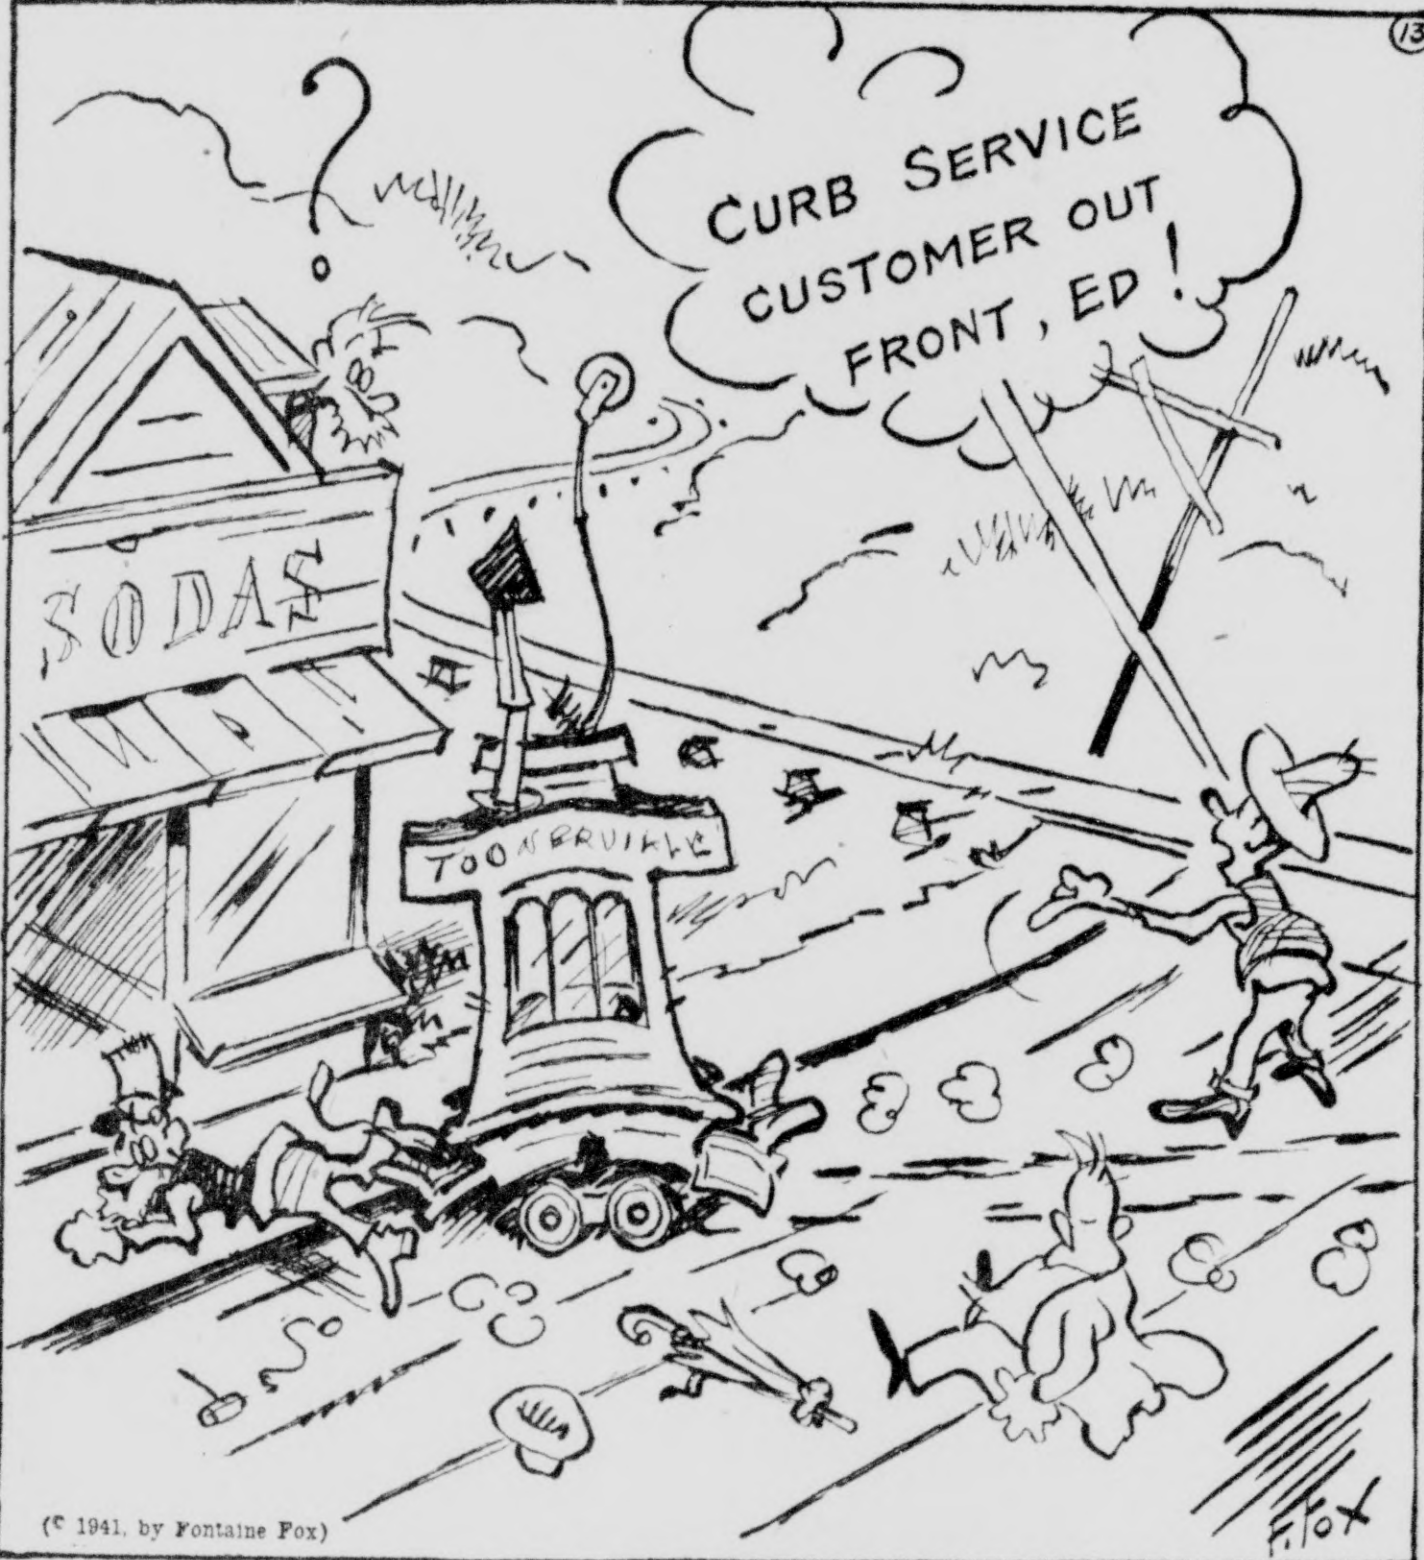

How long are the New Dealers going to continue devastating?

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 7:29. Sun rises tomorrow 4:30.

Who says Germany is not a land of opportunity for all? A kaiser winds up as a woodchopper and a housepainter and paperhanger winds up as a kaiser.

Tomorrow is Flag Day in New Castle!

Pap always gets the personal touch all the year round. Remember this on Father's Day, next Sunday.

We heard the name of a new club, but it is not in New Castle. It is the Knock and Knuckle club. Might change the names of some of the local clubs to that.

Experience is not what happens to a man. It is what a man does with what happens to him.—Aldous Huxley.

Liberty is worth whatever the best civilization is worth.—Henry Giles.

The only time a man is afraid to act natural is when he appears before an insanity commission.

EASY DEATH
"Mother, papa wouldn't murder anybody, would he?"

"Certainly not, my child! What makes you ask that?"

"Well, I just heard him down in the cellar saying, 'Let's kill these other two, George.'"

"I'm so proud of my boys"—said one of the happy mothers of this neighborhood—"not one of them has ever been arrested except for speeding and on liquor charges."

The smart Aleck doesn't enjoy being like that. It is a defense he has built to hide his dumbness.

Mother says the economics Pap planned every time he bought a new luxury is what got him into bankruptcy.

A Pittsburgh man got a divorce from his wife who left him at the church door 20 years ago right after they were married and said, "I'll be seeing you," and he has not seen her since. Omigod!

The young wife was in tears when she opened the door for her husband. "Your mother insulted me." "My mother," he exclaimed. "Why, she is a hundred miles away." "I know, but a letter came for you this morning, and I opened it." He looked stern. I see, but where does the insult come in?

"In the postscript, it said: 'Dear Alice, don't forget to give this letter to George.'"

Some husbands know everything Others don't suspect a thing.

A very modern employer has ordered the following notice to be posted in his business premises:

"Any workman desiring to attend the funeral of a near relative must notify the foreman before 10 a. m. on the day before the game."

"With a single stroke of the brush," said the teacher, taking the

PAL OF HIS WIFE

"Madam," said the hobo, "I once had a wife and family of my own—but I couldn't be contented. I growled and grumbled at everything—and finally I left home."

"Well, here's a chicken sandwich for you, sir," said the housewife. "Mighty few husbands are as considerate as that."

Streets in Altoona, Pa. are being made so when automobiles gallop over them while it is raining the water cannot splash on people standing on the walks. Looks like someone is knocking the dry cleaning business.

A man can eat no more than he can hold.

There is a distinction between haste and hurry—hurry adding to rapidly the element of confusion.

Hi Hum says if he was in a big jewelry store when the lights went out it would be just his luck to be in the heavy bronze elephant department.

A local bird says if the apples have to fall off his trees he would rather they would fall off when they are small instead of when they get big as it is easier to lift them into the garbage can.

She: "I thought I'd tell you just in case."

It's a wonder they do not have women clerks in men's clothing stores because women seem to know better what men should wear than men do. At least married women seem to.

After a Hollywood actress got a divorce from her husband she allowed him to keep their five children without making any fuss. Maybe she thought the kids would be a handicap.

"Use a sentence containing the word 'chisel,'" commanded the teacher. The answer came in: "The sandwich girl said she was out of every other kind of sandwiches, so I told her the 'chisel' do."

Reducing isn't dangerous. The danger is in trying to take off in 20 days what you put on in 20 years.

Storekeeper: What are you doing here? I thought I fired you yesterday.

Ex-Clerk: You did. I just came back to see if you were still in business.

Vichy's Envoy Leads Unhappy Life
Ambassador Henri-Haye Gets Pity
Gets State Department's Warnings

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Gaston Henri-Haye, Vichy France's ambassador in the United States, by all odds is the unhappiest looking member of Washington's present corps of foreign diplomats. The general guess is that his looks are no misrepresentation of his feelings inside.

Germany's and Italy's official spokesmen to the state department, of course know that Naziism and Fascism aren't popular in this country, but apparently they've grown accustomed to it and accept the cold politeness with which they're treated as something necessarily incidental to their jobs.

Russian Ambassador Oumansky's Washington career has had its ins and outs. When the Kremlin's seemed to be increasingly friendly toward Herr Hitler he's been cold shouldered.

Commissar Stalin's appeared to be shying away from the Axis there's been an inclination to give the former's envoy more or less of the glad hand. Just now he's regarded somewhat frostily, but he's used to it.

Admiral Nomura, quite recently put in charge of Japan's Washington embassy, is personally well liked. Our relations with Tokio are strained, it's true. Nevertheless, there's an inkling at the state department that the bulk of the Japs would like to be civilized if they're crazy military class would let 'em be; that the nutty militarists are the ones who raise Cain. But there's a distinction to be drawn between Jay army and Jay navy men. The army, but the navy crowd are pretty decent, according to most of our own Annapolis bunch who've seen service in Oriental waters. And Ambassador Nomura's an admiral. He also has a pro-American record. Consequently there's a strong inclination to be nice to him as long as possible, on the ground that he's a good influence. Hence his lot in Washington isn't so miserable.

But Gaston Henri-Haye's status today is middling tough on him.

A Kind Reception

He arrived here initially as the Vichy government's representative. Though France had capitulated, Marshal Petain still was making as good a bluff as he could at holding the unoccupied part of his country down at least to neutrality. He'd canned pro-German Pierre Laval out, his cabinet. On the theory that the French, while licked, hadn't gone outright pro-Axis, Gaston was (Continued On Next Page)

On Keeping Them In

WASHINGTON, June 13. IT has become axiomatic in this Administration that Mr. Roosevelt never fires anyone. In the eight years of his incumbency there naturally have been some changes in personnel. One or two of his aides have died. But in almost every case when they have resigned it has been a voluntary resignation. No one can recall an instance where the resignation was forced by the President.

CONSEQUENCES of this policy are interesting. For one thing, it has given the jobs of a few of his assistants who were in office of previous Administrations. An overwhelming proportion of the Roosevelt aides have gone into the third term with him. Naturally, they feel entrenched, settled down, secure. From their standpoint, the reluctance of the President to ask anybody to retire is fine. And, from the standpoint of the country, there is also an argument in its favor—to wit, that long tenure in office of those who handle the Government affairs enables them to handle them better than if new men, coming in every year or so, had to familiarize themselves with the work, taking over just as their predecessors were acquiring skill.

HOWEVER, there are two pretty cogent arguments on the other side. One is that their long continuation in power breeds an arrogant intolerance among the cheaper politicians who fill most of these jobs. The other is that it tends to perpetuate the incompetents in office. Evidence of this is to be found in nearly all Government boards and commissions, and certainly in all the departments. The effect of the President's disposition to retain these incompetents in the normal agencies of the Government is admittedly pretty bad; but it is much more serious when it is extended to the defense organization.

IT is his unwillingness to terminate the service of anyone whom he has selected that now blocks the terribly needed reorganization of the defense machinery. Some who have talked with him recently assert that the President knows that the machinery is in bad shape and bogging down. He knows now that he cannot run it himself and that the mistake was in not delegating the managerial job to one man at the beginning. But now he is unable to figure a way of getting back to sound principles without dismantling the whole business and setting it up all over again.

AND that he cannot bring himself to do—for two reasons. One is that it would be a open acknowledgment that his critics were right and that he was wrong. Although in the past eight years that has been demonstrated a good many times about a good many things, it has never been admitted by Mr. Roosevelt. The other is that it would involve separating from the posts he has given them a considerable number of men whom he likes but who are running around in circles rather than marching forward.

NOT long ago Mr. Roosevelt did send for an extremely well-known and highly qualified businessman, with whom he went over the whole situation leaving the businessman under the impression that he wanted him to take over the whole job and boss it. Mr. B. M. Baruch, bossed the War Industries Board twenty-four years ago. Not anxious for the responsibility but willing to assume it, this man told the President that he was at his service. Oil Painting By Doris Bennett Is Given Recognition

Daughter Of Dr. and Mrs. G.
S. Bennett Is Penn Hall
Graduate

Special recognition was given the outstanding oil painting of Dr. Frank S. Magill, president of Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., painted by Miss Doris Anne Bennett, of New Castle, and displayed in the annual art show held in conjunction with the graduation exercises.

Miss Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Bennett of Park avenue, completed her work at Penn Hall and was graduated at the commencement on Tuesday, June 10.

Each year, the outstanding painting in the art show is placed in the permanent art exhibit at Penn Hall. This year, Miss Bennett's painting was selected for the permanent collection.

Although carrying a full academic schedule at the school, Miss Bennett managed to find time to develop her excellent natural talent by taking the art course. Miss Bennett expects to continue with her art studies next fall.

The Great Game Of Politics

He left the White House with the understanding that some sort of announcement would be made and he would be sent for.

HE held himself in readiness for the call, but none came. That was three weeks ago and he has heard nothing whatever from the White House since. Now he has dismissed the whole thing from his mind and is concentrating on his old job. Still, he concedes, it was a strange experience. All that can be deduced from it is that the President feels that some sort of directing head is becoming more necessary and is trying to find a face-saving way of naming one. The expectation is that if and when the President makes his selection he will superimpose either the new man or a new commission or the present OPM and OEM. This will make it unnecessary for him to seem to discard his present instrumentalities. Of course, he may do nothing at all.

What's What At A Glance

received, if pitifully, in kindly fashion—perhaps all the more so because we were so sorry for him.

Now, though?

Vichy hasn't merely blown up. Indications are that it's actually flopped—or is about to do so.

Poland's governments and the Low Countries' and Denmark's and Norway's and Greece's and the Balkan countries' miscellaneous either have been chased away from home or are being dictated to from Berlin. Yet their original embassies and legations in Washington still are recognized as the real thing. Their heads are welcomed at the state department with open arms. Secretary Hull even concluded a treaty with Danish Minister de Kauffman, and when Copenhagen repudiated it, Secretary Hull simply said, in effect, "That repudiation doesn't come from Copenhagen; it comes from Berlin. What Minister de Kauffman says goes."

Oh, those diplomats are as diplomatically potent as ever, so far as Washington's concerned. They're patted on the back. They're invited to swell functions. They make speeches. They can violate Washington's traffic laws and the police can't call 'em to order; they're protected by diplomatic immunity.

The German and Italian and Russian crews aren't so well liked but, as previously remarked, they're used to it. And Ambassador Nomura is liked for himself alone—up to date, anyway.

He gets warnings. Ambassador Henri-Haye, though? What does he get?

State department "warnings," and nothing but.

He's told that if Admiral Darlan, who's considered here as having virtually supplanted Marshal Petain at Vichy, goes unmistakably over to the Axis (which he acts like doing) it'll be up to us to seize France's West Indian islands and French Guiana (Devil's Island), on the South American mainland, and maybe Dakar on the French West African coast.

He's threatened, in short. He might have known that he had a ticklish job to begin with. But the full ticklishness of it must have burst on him mightily abruptly, to judge from his expression when he emerges from his frequent talks with Secretary Hull.

Motion Pictures To Be Shown At Methodist Church

"Washington—the Shrine of American Patriotism" is the title of the new two-reel sound motion picture which has just been produced by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and which will be shown here on Friday evening, June 13, at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist church school room, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

To an original musical arrangement by George Steiner, the voice of Alois Havrilla, well known radio announcer, adds an appeal that lifts the narration far above the commonplace.

This showing will be open to the public and there will be no admission fee.

HUGE TRANSFORMER
An electrical transformer of huge proportions was transported through the Seventh Ward on a big trailer-truck late Thursday afternoon.

SHOP PARADERS
Men employed in the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad shops at New Castle junction who are members of the organization taking part in the Flag Day parade Saturday will be permitted to leave work at 2:30 instead of the usual 3 o'clock, P. M. Gallo-way, general foreman stated today. The action of the B. & O. follows similar action at the Pennsylvania shops and like that action is appreciated by the general committee.

CHARTER BUSES
In order to provide transportation to the uptown district to take part in the Flag Day parade on Saturday, the Columbus society will charter two buses. The first bus will leave the society hall at 2:30 o'clock and will haul members of the society auxiliary. The second bus will leave at 3:20 and will be for the men of the organization.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thayer, Charleston, S. C. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Ashland avenue. Kelley Heim, East Cherry street, sustained a slightly injured back when he fell from a porch roof at his home Wednesday. Miss Eileen Mullen, North Liberty street, is getting along nicely in the Jameson Memorial hospital where she underwent an operation earlier this week. Mrs. David Evans and daughter Ann and sons Walter and Charles and Mr. and Mrs. David J. Evans have returned from Virginia Beach, Va., where they visited Kenneth Evans, who is stationed at the U. S. Army post there.

FAIL TO LOCATE BEAR IN DISTRICT
Persons in the vicinity of Sunny-side and the Mt. Jackson road are asked to be on the lookout for the black cub bear that wandered away from the R. G. McCartney home, Mt. Jackson road, Wednesday afternoon. The bear has not yet been located although searching parties have combed the area. The bear was wearing a collar made of leather and had a 10-foot length of chain attached to it. Because of the fact that the bear might do damage to people's property, Mr. McCartney would like to be notified immediately if anyone happens to see the animal. The animal is not vicious and can easily be led by the chain.

COLUMBUS AUXILIARY MAKES PARADE PLANS

WHAT TO DO FOR POISON IVY SUMMER PLAGUES IN CAMPS

One of the most common afflictions of summer camp, among both children and adults, is poison ivy, and this isn't surprising considering that the plant is found all over North America, though it is virtually unknown elsewhere. Certain localities seem to be free from it, but location of the plant doesn't follow any geographical rule and so wherever you may be this summer, be on the watch for it. There are persons who claim they aren't sensitive to poison ivy, but I doubt it. Anyway, I urge them not to wear it as a garland.

The poison ivy plant is small, short and green, with leaves growing in clusters of three, bright green and very shiny. This shiny surface is one of the best ways of identifying the plant; there are other plants with three leaves, but few have that typical shiny surface. The leaf is usually about two inches long, with a wide, rounded outline. Poison ivy has no flowers but in the fall the leaves become brightly colored.

I always think the plant's name "ivy" is misleading. I have known people to go looking for it on walls, fences and trees, searching for a climbing plant. It is not a climbing ivy, but a low-standing plant. Sometimes, immediately after contact with the plant, the infected part becomes red and blisters appear. At other times these symptoms do not appear for a couple of days. These blisters enlarge and break, spreading a clear liquid over the skin. This spreads that infection. The rash is irritating and itching, scratching it serves only to spread the infection. Irritation breaks the blisters, and if some of the fluid gets under the fingernails, it may spread the infection to other parts of the body.

Like a good many of the complaints that are treated as jokes, ivy poisoning can be very painful and troublesome. I can recall that more than once I have found a child with his face so swollen he couldn't see. More serious cases require a doctor's treatment. I don't know of any way of curing the rash, so I always attempt to make the patient comfortable and keep the disease from spreading.

Bathing the part in a solution of soda and water is soothing. If you wash the affected part with alcohol, it tends to clean up the infection and keep it from spreading. If the alcohol isn't handy, then plain soap and water is good.

President Must Now Select New Attorney General

Francis Biddle May Be Selected

New Deal Leaders Not In Agreement On Selection Of Jackson's Successor

COURT APPOINTEES RECEIVE ACCLAIM

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 13.—While the nation acclaimed his new supreme court appointments, President Roosevelt today faced sharp conflict within the New Deal over his choice of a new attorney general to succeed Robert H. Jackson when the latter goes on the high tribunal.

Mr. Roosevelt named Jackson to the vacancy created when he promoted Associate Justice Harlan Fiske Stone of New York to chief justice. Senate confirmation of Stone and Jackson's expected departure within a week. The President's third appointee, Senator James F. Byrnes (D) S. C., was confirmed immediately.

New Deal Divided
The New Deal meanwhile is divided over Jackson's successor. One group, led by Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, is supporting Solicitor General Francis Biddle of Pennsylvania, now deemed the favorite. Another group, almost as powerful, is fighting Biddle tooth and nail, without centering on a single possibility.

Some observers believe the President may settle this inner-circle controversy by making a surprise "dark horse" appointment. In this category, rumors list two names—Fiorello LaGuardia, mayor of New York City, and Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, of Connecticut. LaGuardia, now a Republican, is a lawyer and once served as assistant attorney general of New York. Douglas, a presidential adviser, taught law at Columbia and Yale before joining the New Deal in 1934. There have been many recent rumors about Douglas leaving the court for a "most important post."

Some New Dealers Disappointed
The President's action in naming Stone rather than Jackson as chief justice brought to a head the political division within the New Deal. The Frankfurter group had groomed Jackson for months as successor to Charles Evans Hughes. They lost out, one report has it, when the legal profession inundated the White House with recommendations for Stone.

On Capitol Hill, a different reason was cited. It was that Chief Justice Hughes himself recommended Stone's promotion. If true, Hughes had a lot of help, because Senator George W. Norris (D) Neb., a frequent presidential adviser on judicial issues, also endorsed Stone. And it is hinted that some of Frankfurter's colleagues also favored Stone over Jackson.

Whatever the reason, the Frankfurter group now is concentrating on promoting Biddle to attorney general. Biddle, who held several Republican posts in Pennsylvania before joining the New Deal in 1934, has had a distinguished career in public service. He has served as chairman of the National Labor Relations board, a Federal Reserve Bank director, Tennessee Valley Authority investigator and judge of the third judicial circuit. He became solicitor general in January, 1940.

Hess Annoyed At Being Prisoner

(International News Service)
LONDON, June 13.—Rudolf Hess, the No. 3 Nazi who flew to Scotland from Germany and then parachuted to earth, is vastly annoyed because he is held as a war prisoner. That was the word left with the British people today by Sir Patrick Dollan, Lord Provost of Glasgow, who declared in a speech at Ladybank, Fife, that Hess came to Britain as an "unrepentant Nazi." Sir Patrick declared Hess believed he could remain in Scotland two days, discuss his peace proposals with a certain group, and then be given gasoline and maps for a return flight to Germany.

annoyed at being kept a prisoner, although he is perhaps safer here than in Germany.

Nut bread cut in thin slices, spread lightly with butter, put together with orange marmalade and cut into fancy shapes is a simple yet delicious refreshment for a bridge or tea.

Enlist Job Office In Effort To Get Aircraft 'Spotters'

New Castle's State Employment Service headquarters in the Citizens Bank building will cooperate in recruiting volunteer enemy aircraft spotters locally. Acting Manager John Velker declared today.

Out of the Harrisburg office of Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry, came word that the entire state department will advise and assist local defense councils all over Pennsylvania in the registration of "spotters."

"The experience of the employment service and the national system of selection of workers on the basis of qualifications is such that the personnel of the local employment office will be invaluable in assisting in the selection of qualified persons to be referred to the area commander for this work," Secretary Hines explained.

Volunteers for this service will not be registered at the employment offices but at other designated points under the supervision of the local defense councils with the employment service assisting and advising the interviewers.

It is understood all employment offices are prepared to give this defense activity its immediate and constant attention in order that operations may begin no later than Monday, June 16.

You don't "make love." It just happens, and then you let nature take its course.

NICKLES GAVE HIS IDEA
KANSAS CITY, June 11.—Ben Kalebaugh was pretty happy about the new heir expected at his home in Kansas City. He started saving new Thomas Jefferson nickles because, for one thing, he has a great admiration for the one-time president's likeness on the coins so much he decided to name the new arrival Thomas Jefferson Kalebaugh.

When displayed from a window attached to a staff the flag should go clear to the peak. In a church or in a public meeting the flag should be at the speaker's right.

When the flag is hung above a door it should be hung vertically with the field of stars at the left as the observer looks at it.

In no case and at no time should the flag be used as a drape or as the cover for a speaker's platform.

Hints On Etiquette
The etiquette of wearing fresh flowers is that the flowers worn should harmonize with the dress or suit and be suitable to the style of the costume.

"It sure clicks with me... this Self-Starter Breakfast!"

THE "Self-Starter" BREAKFAST
A big bowlful of Kellogg's Corn Flakes with some fruit and lots of milk and sugar.
It gives you—
FOOD ENERGY!
VITAMINS!
MINERALS!
PROTEINS!
plus the famous FLAVOR of Kellogg's Corn Flakes that tastes so good it sharpens your appetite, makes you want to eat.

says FRED SONNE
Aerial photographer

"SHOOTING PICTURES FROM AN AIRPLANE calls for steady nerves and alertness all the time. I've found that starting off the day with a big bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes, with fruit and milk is my best bet for a breakfast that's light, and yet sticks with me right up to lunch time. Tastes swell, too!"

Come on! Drive a Car with "Second Wind"!

YOU say a racehorse has "heart" when he can turn on the drive coming into the stretch and bring the crowd to its feet with an all-out finish.

Okeh—come try a car that can turn on extra wallop like water from a tap—and see what you would say about Compound Carburetion!

For this stunning Buick straight-eight swings you along sweetly on only half-carburetion as long as you're taking it easy in everyday sort of travel.

But step down on the gas treadle—and things happen.

A second carburetor opens up. Air supply as well as gas supply is increased. Power rises instantly. You get your "stretch drive" any time you give the word.

But—this isn't only for thrill.

This engine's actually more efficient because it has this "second wind."

It gives you a car that has the life and lift you like—and still delivers (on owners' say-so) as much as 10% to 15% more miles per gallon than previous Buicks did.

That would be important any time; it's all the more important now—at the low delivered prices your Buick dealer is asking.

for the Business Coupe (illustrated above) including Compound Carburetion.

delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices and specifications subject to change without notice.

Unions Move To Hit Communists

Seek To Smash Communistic Influences In American Labor Movement

(International News Service) NEW YORK, June 13.—Three of the most powerful unions in the CIO today joined forces in a move to smash communistic influences in the American labor movement.

The drive, headed by the United Automobile Workers, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and the Textile Workers' union, will be launched on the west coast, scene of the recent North American Aviation Co. strike.

The ACW and the TWU already have dispatched special representatives to Los Angeles to work with Richard Frankenstein, national director of the Aircraft Division of the UAW, to "clean house" in California.

Decision to drive out the Reds was made as the result of the support given to the North American Aviation Co. strike by the Los Angeles industrial union council and other adherents of Harry Bridges, west coast labor leader and alleged Communist.

Although union leaders would not discuss their course of action, it was learned that they plan to withdraw all their locals from the Los Angeles industrial council and set up their own council composed of right-wing leadership.

Call 9,297 Men In Draft Quota During July

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, June 13.—The U. S. army has called upon Pennsylvania's 422 local boards to supply 9,297 men for induction between July 1 and July 31, Gov. Arthur H. James announced today.

The men—8,857 white and 440 negro—will be sent to the army induction centers as follows: New Cumberland, 4,200; Fort Meade, Md., 3,713; and Camp Lee, Va., 1,384.

Flag Day Display At Epworth Church

Epworth Methodist church is co-operating with the Flag Day program by featuring a flag and floral display on the church lawn at the intersection of East Washington street and Butler avenue.

Some months ago, the Young Married People's class of the church school erected a flag pole of imposing dimensions at this conspicuous point, and from time to time, patriotic exercises have marked the spot. On Memorial Day the display of flags and flowers was most impressive and attracted wide attention.

The display for Flag Day, which will be maintained over the week end, will be even more striking and impressive. The setting is to be landscaped and nearly one hundred flags and floral baskets will be used in the setting. The large flag will be raised on Saturday morning at 8:30 with the Girl Scout troop connected with the church and the Boy Scouts of America participating.

FAMILY PICKETS JAIL
(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O. — A successful "strike", with picketing and all the fixings, by a mother and her three children resulted in the release of a 53-year-old WPA worker from jail, where he was held on intoxication charges.
The woman, Mrs. Walter Hartley, told police "I won't leave until he's out of jail." So saying, she sat on the steps of the city prison with her three children, the oldest of whom is only four.
After several hours, Capt. Lester Merica voided the warrant and released the woman's husband.

How tiresome to hear others talk of their ailments—when we happen to have none.

BLITZ ON GRASSHOPPERS
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON.—An aerial blitz-krieg is planned against armies of grasshoppers that damage enormous crops each spring and summer. The Department of Agriculture will bomb the invasion forces of hoppers from the air with poisonous bait before they can take off from wastelands to wreak their havoc on crops. The grasshopper bait will be sent to local mixing stations and thence to airports. When the hordes of grasshoppers threaten to invade the croplands, the Department will take to the air to dispel them.

All offices in the court house will be closed Saturday June 14th in observance of Flag Day. Like most of the citizens and officials of the city and county officials are joining in the city-wide celebration of the day.

Commissioner William R. Walton had some of the girls a trifle nonplussed for a while when he said the court house would be closed only if the girls marched in the parade Saturday afternoon. He finally relented and said he would settle for their attendance at the mass meeting in the Cathedral Saturday night.

Among other repairs of the summer the Grant street bridge will probably be painted this year. The possibility of re-flooring the Mill street bridge has been discussed but it may be that the deck will be treated with tar and left for another year.

Repairs to the Cherry street bridge will be made this summer but because of the rising cost of materials the job may cost more than was at first anticipated.

The addition to the court house which was approved by the March grand jury has not yet been approved by the court, although it has been indicated that approval would be made.

Should there be any changes necessary, the whole matter would have to lay over until the September grand jury passed upon the plans.

The office of Sheriff M. M. Ingham, for a long time a two or three tone paint job is finally going to get painted.

The office has needed paint for a long time and now it will get it. Some new floor covering upon the floor would hardly be out of place either.

The slow summer days in the court house are nearly here. Civil court is not held during the summer, there is no criminal court until September, and about all that will be held in open court will be motions and petitions, a few arguments, desertion and non-support court and juvenile court, the latter behind closed doors.

Australia now has 720 miles of electrified railways.

LIVESTOCK CENSUS ORDERED IN ITALY

(International News Service)
 ROME, June 13—The Rome radio announced today that "in order to satisfy the food requirements of the armed forces, the agriculture ministry has ordered an immediate census of all livestock." After the census is taken, the announcement said, 30 per cent of all cattle will be placed at the disposal of the Italian government until July, 1942.

HOLD SONS OF VETS' DANCE AT CASCADE

Because of governmental restrictions due to national defense the Sons of Veterans of Foreign Wars will not hold their dance Saturday night in the Armory but will hold it in Rainbow Terrace at Cascade Park, B. J. Blomberg turned the pavilion over to the Sons of Foreign veterans, it was announced today.

Use a long-handled, moderately-sized bottle brush to clean bed springs. Dip the brush in hot water quite often. Such a brush gets into corners much more easily than the dish mop which ordinarily is used for this purpose.

Workers Hear Able Addresses

Lawrence County Sabbath School Delegates Are Inspired By Convention

AWARDS ARE MADE
DURING SESSIONS

H. L. Marvin, president of the New Castle district, presided at the afternoon session of the 103rd convention of Lawrence County Sabbath School Association and the New Castle district, held at the First U. P. church Thursday.

Rev. R. M. Patterson of the Central Presbyterian church had charge of the devotional service, the subject being "Christ Triumphant in His Death and Resurrection." Report of the resolutions committee followed.

Mrs. A. J. Holman of Pittsburgh, children's division specialist, delivered a forceful address on the subject "Torch Bearers" stressing the importance of the Christian home.

The memorial service was in charge of the president, Robert Strickler, who gave the poem "Our Departed, God's Great-Hearted." The congregation sang a fitting hymn, led by Rev. D. L. Ferguson. All joined in a memorial prayer, which was followed by an organ selection by F. D. Taylor.

Myers Makes Address

Walter E. Myers, general secretary, Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, delivered a comprehensive address. He spoke words of encouragement to all Sabbath school workers, stating that the Sabbath school was the greatest thing in the faith, and that we must have great things for God. He said: "What hope is there for a world like ours, only that we know that the word of God will triumph? God's words, 'I am the Almighty God, the God of all flesh.'"

Call unto Me and I will answer and show thee great and mighty things," Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Mr. Myers said "we must bring our pupils into the fellowship of God, and let us thank God that He can help bring about Christ's triumph."

Rev. Ferguson led the congregation in song.

Pittsburgh Pastor Speaks

The president introduced Rev. Virgil Elliott, pastor of the Central Christian church, Pittsburgh, who spoke on "Why? What? Where? How?" He referred to the splendid notices that hung around the walls of the church. Why preach Christ? "Because He is needed in this bleeding and torn world." "What shall we tell the world about Jesus? Tell them the whole story about Jesus, a Christ that died for us, that His blood cleanses from sin. Where should we preach Christ? Everywhere, to the uttermost parts of the earth, house to house, using tactful approach. How? With every means at our disposal, and by sharing dollars and cents with those who are able to go."

Awards were presented by Mrs. Howard Magill, secretary, to the ladies adult classes. Third U. P. First Baptist, Wurttemberg Methodist and Wampum Presbyterian churches.

Evening Session

At the evening session, Robert Strickler presided.

Rev. W. V. McLean, minister of the First Methodist church, conducted the devotions, using the theme "Christ triumphant in the world today."

Miss Lena Mae McConnell gave a vocal solo, "My Task," accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Louise Kirkpatrick.

Walter E. Myers, in a very impressive manner, installed the newly elected county and district officers. "Pre-Easter Advance" awards were made by Rev. J. J. McVain, minister of the church whose Sunday school had the best record, the First Presbyterian; to First Presbyterian, Third U. P., Wesley Methodist, St. John's Lutheran, Second U. P., Sheringham U. P., Platingrove U. P., Moravia Presbyterian, Edenburg Methodist, Ellwood City Christian, Oak Grove U. P. and King's Chapel Methodist.

Rev. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, introduced Rev. Virgil Elliott of Pittsburgh as the speaker of the evening. He said Rev. Elliott was one of his best students for three years at Bethany college.

Rev. Elliott's subject was, in a masterful discourse, "Dare we take Jesus seriously?" He said: "Of course we can, we can take Him literally. In the realm of purity, Christ says, 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.' We should control our thoughts, which are followed by the acts. Purity in life, 'we are the temples of God. We should do justly, and walk humbly with God. Be honest in our dealings. In unselfishness, Christ lived it. He thought of others; it's well, it's deep with love.' Having been an outstanding athlete, Rev. Elliott spoke of sportsmanship among athletes.

Attendance Awards

The largest attending at this service was awarded by the president to the Men's Bible class, First Baptist church.

Robert Strickler, on behalf of the convention, expressed appreciation for the courtesies given them by both Rev. Irvine, the pastor; Mr. Chambers, Sunday school superintendent; the trustees; the ladies of the church, the "News," the speakers, and all others who had contributed to make the convention a success.

The convention church choir gave several splendid selections during the session, under the directorship of F. D. Taylor, organist and director.

Rev. D. L. Ferguson led the congregational singing throughout the day.

Dr. Bennett pronounced the benediction.

TROOP 7

Girl Scouts of Troop 7 held their regular meeting Monday evening in the Red Cross headquarters, where they are taking a course in home nursing.

Mrs. Travis French showed the girls the proper way to take a temperature, take a pulse and count respiration.

Mary Bintram and Joan Alexander were special guests.

Income Tax Filers Gain Here In 1940

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—The number of New Castle residents filing individual federal income tax returns gained sharply last year, according to figures made public today by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

This same upward trend was apparent in Lawrence county, Pennsylvania as a whole, and the country at large.

In 1940, a total of 3,342 New Castle individuals filed such returns.

This contrasted with 2,707 filing in 1939. The number of such returns increased from 3,398 to 5,206 in Lawrence county and from 507,627 to 633,662 in Pennsylvania.

Increases for other Lawrence county communities were recorded as follows: Bessemer, from 67 in 1939 to 113 in 1940; Ellwood City, from 864 to 1,263; Mahoningtown, from 24 to 56; Hillsville returns declined from 30 to 27.

Thumbs Ride In Car Of Officers

Then Seeks To Force Driver To Take Him Home—Faces Mayor In Court

Otis Presley, colored, Bridge street, made a grievous error early this morning, in jail and after either paying a fine of $10.00, or serving 15 days in jail, must leave the city.

Here's the story:

He had been to the carnival last night. Tired, he thumbed a ride toward the city.

However, Presley did not know the driver was Constable Pacelli and the rear seat occupant, who was in plain clothes, was Patrolman Budd Fleeger.

At Long avenue and Moravia street, the driver told Presley the car was going no farther.

Presley allegedly commanded that he be driven to his Bridge street abode.

He was told to get out of the car. However, when he did he became menacing.

Reportedly he pulled a long bladed knife, opened a rear door and threatened the occupants.

However, it was only a second until Otis was looking down the business-end of a revolver in the steady hand of Fleeger.

It was then that Fleeger stepped from the car and disarmed Presley.

Although it had been intended that Long avenue and Moravia street was to be the terminus for Constable Pacelli's auto, it was wheeled uptown and Presley was lodged in jail and in police court was convicted of disorderly conduct.

Execute Gangsters

At Sing Sing On Thursday Night

OSSINING, N. Y., June 13.—The bodies of Harry (Pittsburgh Phil) Strauss and Martin (Bugsy) Goldstein lay on a cold stone slab in the Sing Sing prison morgue today—first members of the infamous Brooklyn murder syndicate to die in the electric chair for their roles in the gangland mob that made killing a trade.

The two hoodlums, held personally responsible for 32 underworld slayings, were executed shortly after 11 p. m. EDT last night for the strangulation-murder of Irving (Puggy) Feinstein, another syndicate member, whose charred body was found slumped in a Brooklyn lot on Sept. 4, 1939.

P. R. R. Shopmen Off Duty Early

In order that many of men employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad shops in the Seventh ward may parade on Flag Day, Saturday, June 14, the shops will finish at 2:30 in the afternoon instead of 3:30. Superintendent J. E. Vandling said today.

Many of the shopmen are members of organizations which expect to parade. This is particularly true of the Christopher Columbus society. Many of this society are shop employees. The consideration of Superintendent Vandling means a large addition to the parade line and the general committee appreciates his courtesy.

Babson Sees Present Business Opportunities As Almost Unlimited

(By ROGER W. BABSON)

BABSON PARK, Mass., June 13.—Letters are coming to me from manufacturers, merchants, salesmen, and others asking me how the war will affect their businesses, such questions as, "Will I be able to sell electric refrigerators?" "Will installment buying be allowed?" "Will more oil burners be manufactured?" etc. These people see so much in the papers about priorities, control of raw materials, manufacturers' restrictions, and the like that they are thoroughly scared. They wonder whether they will have the goods to sell.

Can't Kill Industries

The first thing to remember is that human nature cannot be changed by legislation. I learned this during World War I when I was National Director of Information at Education at Washington. We shut down on Sunday motoring, but the money went into silk shirts instead of into gasoline. In England, they first shut off the sale of cosmetics to English working girls in the factories. The authorities soon found, however, that unless the girls could buy what they wanted the production of munitions fell off. Then, the Government went to the other extreme and installed in all factories slot machines for the sale of cosmetics.

I repeat: No Government restrictions can change human nature. This means that industries can't be killed. People will change their habits of riding from a stage-coach to a railroad train and from a railroad train to a bus or airplane; but the transportation industry is fundamental. Men will change their mode of fighting from bows and arrows to pistols and tanks and then to tanks and bombing planes; but warfare is fundamental. We change our method of heating from wood pile to coal stove and then to the oil burner; but the heating industry still remains fundamental. Those who stick to their industry but are willing to change their methods are, in the long run, successful.

Finding New Uses

Our great grandparents did their reading by candlelight; our grandparents read with a kerosene lamp; our parents lit the house with gas; while we use the incandescent lamp. The mode of lighting changed, but those who stuck to the lighting industry and were willing to change the method of lighting came through with flying colors. The easily-frightened and the "die-hards" were wiped out. Certainly, there is a lesson in this for all of us today. Do not give up the business or line of work for which you are trained because Harold Ickes says "Boo" to you and tries to scare you.

There is something more in this connection, however, which we should now remember. It is this: Notwithstanding the changes from candles to kerosene and to gas and electricity, this astounding fact is true: MORE CANDLES ARE SOLD TODAY. MORE KEROSENE IS SOLD TODAY. AND MORE GAS IS SOLD TODAY THAN EVER BEFORE IN HISTORY. This means that even some of those who remained in these "vanishing" businesses are making millions today. They are making these millions because they developed new uses for their products. They taught people to use candles for decorative purposes; to use kerosene to operate the kitchen stove; and to use gas to heat the house, operate the icebox, and a score of other things never dreamed of before.

Use Your Brains

A famous magazine publisher interested in developing national advertising once gave me the job of discovering some industry in which no one was then making a fortune. I spent a year on the quest, traveling thousands of miles and making all kinds of inquiries. I was absolutely unable to find a single industry from cradles to coffins in which someone, somewhere, was not making millions. Certainly, this proves that it is the MAN rather than the INDUSTRY which determines success or failure.

If you lack courage and imagination, better get a job with the Government or enlist in the army as soon as possible. These are two fields where you need to do only what you are told and you will get your pay check just the same at the end of every month. If, however, you have courage and imagination and are willing to use your brains and your shoe leather, you need not fear how the war will affect your business. Remember that you have in your head the most wonderful and profitable machine which God or man ever created. For heaven's sake use it for something beside supporting a hat!

Remember Plastics

The priority regulations chiefly affect metals. These regulations would have been a severe handicap to manufacturers of refrigerators, vacuum cleaners, radios, etc. during World War I, if these things had been in general use twenty-five years ago. Since then, however, the use of plastics has been discovered. In most things now sold for household use, plastics can today take the place of metals. Think this over before getting frightened! Also remember that plastics are only one of a score of other important substitutes which have been developed since World War I. Make priorities and other war restrictions stepping stones to better business, more profits, and real prosperity, instead of getting frightened and running for cover.

"Toot" Only When Safety's Menaced

Tune Signals To Girl Friend To Bring Fine Of
$3.00

Toot-a-Toot, Toot, Toot!

In about 10 days were an autoist to play that tune on an auto horn to notify his girl friend or anyone else, for all of that, when the car is not in motion, the tune will cost him $3.00.

And should he sound his horn when it is not necessary for safety's sake, well, he or she will likewise pay $3.00.

This is the fine prescribed in a proposed ordinance introduced some time ago by Finance Director J. L. Fink and reported favorably from committee Thursday, and pending passage finally, will be printed.

It appears that motorists here use their horns to signal for purposes other than that of safety. Not only are people awakened from sound sleep, but are also annoyed during the daytime.

It has become so serious that Mayor Charles B. Mayne believes the time has arrived when patience no longer is a virtue.

He discussed the situation with his colleagues, hence the measure submitted by Director Fink.

the Elks Home on North Mill street promptly at 3 o'clock to take part in the program.

Conn Best Boxer To Oppose Louis

Excepting Pastor, Louis Has Not Yet Met Scientific Foe

CONN BELIEVED TO HAVE BEST CHANCE

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 13.—Joe Louis will increase his own record for heavyweight championship defenses next Wednesday night when for the 18th time he will lay fistiana's so-called fairest bauble on the line in his 15-round encounter with Billy Conn. This is going to be a heavy betting fight and one which already has begun to inspire bar room, street corner and tea table arguments. Here in the big town there hasn't been a heavyweight battle since the second Louis-Schmeling bout to cause so much discussion.

Actually, what are Conn's chances on the basis of past performances? You can't take Conn's record to get a line on the outcome because he is a legitimate light heavyweight who has met the rank of heavyweight opposition in the buildup designed to sell him as a fitting challenger.

So let's take a look at Louis' previous 17 defenses of the title, weighing each for what it is and was worth and thereby get an approximate evaluation of the champion against the challenger.

Here is Louis' record as champion with an appraisal of his opponents, starting with Tommy Farr, the first man to meet him, and ending with Buddy Baer, the last.

Herewith is presented Louis' opponent, how Louis won and what the opponent had to offer:

Tommy Farr—Won 15, tough, game, no punch.

Nathan Mann—K. O. 3, good puncher, no heart.

Harry Thomas—K. O. 5, tough, no ability.

Max Schmeling—K. O. 1, good punch, washed up, swept off his feet.

John Henry Lewis—K. O. 1, blind in one eye, washed up, scared.

Jack Roper—K. O. 1, aged fifth-rater.

Tony Galento—K. O. 4, good puncher, dumb fighter.

Bob Pastor—K. O. 11, fast, clever bicyclist.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Louis-Conn fight should gross between $350,000 and $400,000. Lloyd Warner has been traded by the Boston Bees to the Cincinnati Reds for John Hutchings, right-handed pitcher. Tommy Forte Philadelphia will fight Lou Salica, Brooklyn, bantamweight champion Monday night in Philadelphia. Rain prevented the 'go' last night. Betty Jameson vs. Patty Berg and Mrs. Burt Well vs. Mrs. James Platt, Jr., is the semi-final order in the Women's Western Golf championship at Cincinnati today. David Allerdice has been accepted for training in the army flying cadets corps at Princeton. First round of the Mahoning Valley Open Golf tournament got under way today at the Mahoning Country Club near Girard. Redfoot won the Washington, Pa. chamber of commerce purse at Wheeling, Thursday. Tom Crowley, former sparring partner of Harry Greb died yesterday in a Pittsburgh hospital of a heart attack. Jack Lewis, well known barber and fisherman, postcards us today from Memphis, saying he had been out to Hollis Lake, near Bob Burns', Van Burne, Ark, home. Jack and his son Tom will also visit the west.

Mahoning 6, Highland 0.

Christians 5, Temple Israel 1.

First U. P. 5, First M. E. 1.

First Presbyterians 5, Epworth 1.

Carl Hubbell Tames Chicago

Aging Pitcher Beats Cubs 2 To 0, Tigers Lose Tough One To Athletics

By PAT ROBINSON

(International News Service Sports Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 13.—It's always been a pleasure to us to watch a master craftsman at work and we're not particular whether it be a master mechanic, a master surgeon or a master pitcher.

And that's why we never fail to get a kick out of watching old Carl Hubbell of the Giants do his stuff. Win or lose, you are always sure that Bill Terry's meal ticket is going to show you all there is to be seen about pitching.

We like to see that lanky bird crawl out of a dugout and shuffle out to the mound with his head bowed as if in deep thought, a cud of tobacco in his jaw and his pants hanging down around his ankles.

He looks sloppy in his monkey suit but there is nothing careless or sloppy about his pitching. He may seem half asleep out there on the hill but he never misses a trick and the old boy undoubtedly knows more about the hitters than they know about themselves.

Giants Tame Cubs

His left arm hangs crooked at the elbow from years of throwing the screwball and while that aged arm may have lost some of its speed, its owner has lost no part of his head or his heart and that's why he is still a tough old bird to tame.

The Cubs found that out yesterday when old Hub spread eight hits to take a 2-0 decision over Bill Lee. It was a nice day; the old boy felt pretty good; and he just kept on flipping that left arm with apparent nonchalance but with every ball going just where he wanted it.

Of course, Hubbell is by no means the only smart pitcher. There is, for instance, the veteran Paul Derringer of the Reds. There were one or two occasions this year when he appeared to be slipping a little.

But there were no signs of slipping yesterday as he let the Braves down with four hits to score a 1-0 victory over young Art Johnson. Paul had to be good for the young left-hander gave the Reds only five hits but after his mates gave a run in the first, the veteran just went on mowing 'em down.

It so happened that those two shutouts were the only games in the National but over in the other circuit there was plenty of action and lots of poor pitching.

Athletics Trip Tigers

For instance, the Tigers had a game in hand going into the ninth against the Athletics but Al Benton threw a gopher ball to Al Brancato with two aboard and away the ball and the ball game, 5-3.

The Indians and Senators were washed out but the Red Sox and Browns teed off on each other. The Red Sox scored four runs in the first inning of the opener, chasing Harris, but Muncie stopped them cold for the rest of the route while the Browns lit into Dobson, Fleming and Dickman for a 9-4 decision. The Red Sox got an even break by taking the second game, 3-2. Nyring gave the Sox only six hits but one of these was Ted Williams' homer with one aboard and that was the pay-off.

In a night game at Chicago, Joe DiMaggio brought home the bacon for the Yanks when he rapped out a homer in the tenth inning to give the New Yorkers a 3-2 win over the White Sox. The Yanks had been trailing 2-1 until the ninth when they pushed over a run to tie-up the game.

Ramblers Edge Shamrock Nine

Behind Carey's seven hit pitching, the Ramblers notched a 6-5 City-County Independent Baseball League triumph over the Shamrocks, last night on Union field.

Carpenter and Lowers teed the slab for the losers and permitted but a single hit. B. Hike was the star hitter.

Score by innings:
Ramblers 002 301 0—6 1 2
Shamrocks 001 022 0—5 7 2
Batteries—Ramblers: Carey and Byers; Shamrocks: Carpenter, Louers and Summerson.

"Keep Baseball Alive," Frick

(International News Service)

NEW YORK — Warning that "some well-meaning but ill-advised government official might try to do away with baseball during this period of emergency," National League President Ford Frick today urged fans "to join with us to keep baseball alive during the time of stress and turmoil."

Frick said that officials in the last war labelled baseball a non-essential industry and then later told baseball men to keep the game going as it provided the necessary diversion for the people.

NIGHT STARR

Most of the home games played by Indianapolis of the American Association League are night battles. The Indians have Starr doing most of the pitching.

HOSS OWNERS ASK PURSE INCREASE

(International News Service)

CHICAGO—Col. Matt Winn, executive director of Lincoln Fields, has before him a formal petition signed by 14 horse owners demanding that the race track increase its minimum purses from $800 to $1,000.

The petition, pointing out that tracks in New York and California have minimum purses of $1,500 and $1,200, respectively, with similar minimums at other tracks, asserted that the $800 Lincoln Fields minimum is not sufficient for owners to meet increasing costs of stable operations.

CULLENBINE HITTING

A 230 hitter in 1940, Roy Cullenbine is proving one of the sensations of the current major league season. Roy was among the 91 Detroit farm hands made free agents. He played with Brooklyn and later shifted to the Browns, his present post.

Softball Loop Games Tonight

(International News Service)

There will be five games on the Lawrence County softball schedule for tonight, with all games starting at 6 o'clock.

The following schedule will be carried out—
Valentinos at Ellipton.
Fannins at Sunny Boys—Gaston Park.
Columbus Club at Donofrios—Progressive Field.
Ellwood Sons of Italy at Radatons.
Johnson Bronze at Sons of Italy—Dean Park.

HARD TO FIGURE

CHICAGO—It's hard to figure but the Cubs traded Gleason and Matlick, a pair of kids for Billy Myers; then traded Billy Herman, another veteran, for two youngsters.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

An open letter to Billy Conn:—

Bill Conn, Pompton Lake, N. J.

Dear Billy:

Slightly over a year ago, I picked you as the fighter to whip Joe Louis. I made the prediction after watching you and Louis perform. I believe that Louis is a killer—against a big awkward bulk. I noticed that Joe seemed somewhat lost against a swift moving target. Joe will murder anything that stands still. An elusive target is Louis' nemesis, fellows like Godoy, Farr and Pastor proved that. . . .

Wednesday night, you prove that I'm either right or wrong. During a few idle moments last night, I asked myself: "What would you do if you were Billy Conn?" Here's the program I outlined, if I were Billy Conn:

Knowing that one of Louis' eyes is still in the healing process, I'd aim at the orb. You know it doesn't take too long to re-open that scar. In shooting for the target, I'd keep moving, making sure that Louis wouldn't get a square shot at me, that might be dangerous, even curtains. . . .

Enough whacks at the eye, I figure, would re-open the peeper. With my rapier left, I'd keep peppering away, always remembering to be aware of Louis' dynamic right. Joe is bound to become rattled, if he doesn't find the object there. I wouldn't make the mistake of thinking that I had Louis, no sir, not unless I'd see the white of his eyes. . . .

I'd utilize my speed and footwork, getting in a series of short—snappy shots and moving away. Joe is bound to become befuddled. A puzzled Louis is like a fellow walking in his sleep. Schmeling proved that in his first set. I'd continue jabbing and shooting hooks, still remembering to keep away from Louis' right. By the fifth, I'd really be warmed up while Joe would be losing some of his snap. . . .

If I'd succeed in opening that scar, I would concentrate on one thing—that eye. Shoot and duck, shoot and duck. A Louis with one eye is as harmless as a three day pup. I'd then step up the tempo, shooting a bit faster, moving around with a bit more celerity. I question very much if any human can withstand that kind of punishment for seven or eight more rounds. . . .

That, Billy, is the way I would do it. I believe in you implicitly, provided you don't lose your head. Don't ever make the mistake of thinking that you have Louis, that's when he's dangerous. Schmeling did that in his second scrap and I can still see Schmeling crying out loud on the canvas. . . .

Make use of your speed and footwork. He may tag you when around the ropes or in the clinches, but he won't get any clean shots—if you move around. Leave your Irish temper at Pompton Lake, that's the place for it. Keep cool and don't become too anxious. With youth, confidence and, I believe, a better head on your shoulders than Louis, I can see your arm being raised in the air next Wednesday—designating victory. Lots of luck, One of your chief supporters.

Competent Tutors Help Non-Swimmers Master Water Art

Y. W. C. A. "Learn-To-Swim" Group Progressing With Instruction

Qualified swimming instructors who are masters of their art are transforming a band of non-swimmers into swimmers in the Y. M. C. A. pool this week.

The splashing students make up the annual "Learn-to-Swim" class which the association conducts each summer purely as a community service—and as a help for the individuals who are taught to swim.

All the tutors are tops in their field here and with Physical Director William Winter in charge, the class is progressing "right on schedule". While the group may not be as large as in former years, the interest of the group makes up for the slump in attendance.

Sessions, opened Monday, will continue daily for almost two weeks. Final tests will determine the credit a candidate will receive.

Only 42 factories are required to take care of Uncle Sam's bald spots, according to census records, which show that these establishments employ 370 workers in the manufacture of wigs, switches, braids and puffs made from human hair.

Huff Expects To Hustle Jarosik

Moran, Arkett, Baby Face And Gardner, Localites, To Box Monday

Although the big pugilistic meal of next week will be devoured by hungry fans in New York City on Wednesday night, there'll be an inviting fistic meal in the air-cooled Arena, Monday night. It will bring together a champion of a Diamond Belt tournament, Sparky Jarosik, of Pittsburgh, against Willie Huff of Clairton. They weigh 175 pounds. Four New Castle boxers have been signed.

According to the Jefferson Athletic club, Huff expects to provide plenty of trouble for Jarosik and, if expectations of his trainer are to come true, Jarosik will be defeated.

Like all amateur bouts, of which there will be eight, commencing at 8:30 p. m., New Castle time, Monday, it will be limited to three rounds. Unlike pro' fights, there can be no draw. There must be a winner.

Baby Face On Card

Frankie Moran, Baby Face Leasure, Charlie Arkett and Jimmie Gardner, all of this city, will fight. They have been training faithfully in the Jefferson A. C. They are certain to cause a lot of action. Frankie will oppose Jimmie Brown of Clairton at 135; Leasure will take on Ted Hought of Canonsburg at 140, and Gardner will battle Harry Burnett, Warren, at 140. Arkett will fight Willie Booker of Clairton at 150.

Indies-Slovaks Battle Tonight

Weather permitting the Lawrence Indies will play the Slovak club tonight at the Clifton Flats Field at 6 o'clock, it was announced by Manager John Russu.

Either "Monk" Rainey or Pat Majocha will take the hill for the Indies, with Janski or Balla ready to take the knurl for the Slovaks. This is a postponed city league game.

Arturo Godoy—Won 15, bothered some clown.

Johnny Paychek—K. O. 2, tied in knots by fright.

Arturo Godoy—K. O. 8, his clowning solved.

Al McCoy—K. O. 6, quit in his corner.

Red Burman—K. O. 5, game, no punch, no ability.

Gus Dorazio—K. O. 2, fourth-rater.

Abe Simon—K. O. 13, big, strong, rugged, willing.

Tony Musto—K. O. 9, unorthodox, lacking in class.

Buddy Baer—K. O. 8, good puncher, big game.

Check through all the foregoing and you find only one real good boxer—Bob Pastor. So the significance of all this seems to be that those who are stringing along with Conn may have something. He is a superb boxer and game as they come and gave Pastor a good lathering. So putting Pastor's showing against Louis besides Conn's superior ability, the conclusion could be that Conn has a better chance than anybody is conceding. The point is, a good boxer may be the one to upset the champion.

Not that we are picking it that way. Our choice here and now and henceforward is Louis on his punch and strength. But we admit at the same time he hasn't met as good a boxer as Conn as far and this may prove to be slightly disconcerting.

Nature gave us race prejudice. Birds flock with their own kind to keep the species pure.
